Day Trip to Lake Naivasha & Hell's Gate National Park

Walk through a landscape of high cliffs and rustling grasslands on a full-day adventure tour from Nairobi to Hell's Gate National Park, one of just two Kenyan parks where you can leave the car behind and explore on foot. Watch for herds of zebra, Thomson's gazelle and eland as you follow trails through the park, searching for signs of cheetahs and ostriches along the way. Meet local Maasai people over a traditional Kenyan lunch and visit a wildlife conservation centre before returning to Nairobi.

Itinerary

7:00 am – Depart Nairobi and begin the drive to Naivasha, with a brief stop at the Great Rift Valley viewpoint.

9:00 am – Arrive at the gate of Hell's Gate National Park and begin a two-hour biking tour.

11:00 am – Finish the tour and return the bikes to the gate.

12:00 pm – Drive to Naivasha Marina Camp for lunch at your own expense.

2:00 pm – Take a one-hour boat ride on the lake for birdwatching and hippo viewing.

4:00 pm – End of all activities and begin the drive back to Nairobi.

Return by 6:00 pm

Day Trip to Nairobi National Park

Nairobi National Park is just 10 kilometres from the city centre, making it one of the easiest places to enjoy a wildlife safari without leaving Nairobi. The park is home to a wide range of animals, including some of the Big Five, as well as many bird species, all set against the city skyline.

Your safari begins with pickup from your hotel before heading to Nairobi National Park. Enjoy game viewing and look out for wildlife such as lions, leopards, African buffalo, black rhinos, giraffes, hippos, spotted hyenas, blue wildebeest, plains zebras, cheetahs, Thomson's gazelles, Grant's gazelles, elands, impalas, hartebeest, waterbuck, warthogs, olive baboons, black-backed jackals, ostriches and Nile crocodiles.

You will also visit the Giraffe Centre, a conservation centre dedicated to protecting and educating visitors about the endangered Rothschild giraffe. Get up close to the giraffes, feed them their favourite pellets, and enjoy a memorable wildlife experience before being dropped back at your hotel.

Three-Day Masai Mara Safari

Masai Mara National Reserve is widely known for its rich wildlife, including lions, cheetahs, elephants, buffalo, giraffes and antelopes, as well as the annual wildebeest migration.

Masai Mara is one of Africa's premier game reserves. This road safari takes you through the Great Rift Valley and onwards to the plains of the Mara, with a stop at the Great Rift Valley viewpoint. The safari offers an immersive wildlife experience and the chance to see the Big Five in their natural habitat. From July to September, you may also witness the iconic wildebeest migration across the Mara River.

Itinerary

Day 1: Nairobi – Masai Mara

You will be picked up from your hotel and depart for Masai Mara National Reserve, a journey of approximately six hours. There will be a stop at the Great Rift Valley viewpoint for refreshments, followed by another stop in Narok town to relax. Upon arrival, you will check in to your hotel, have lunch and proceed for a late-afternoon game drive. Dinner and overnight at Enchoro Wildlife Camp or similar.

Day 2: Full Day in Masai Mara

After an early breakfast, enjoy a full-day game drive and explore the Mara's incredible wildlife. Early morning and late afternoon are considered the best times to spot animals, as they are more active. You may see the Big Five — lion, leopard, elephant, rhino and buffalo — as well as giraffes, zebras, wildebeest and a variety of bird species. Dinner and overnight at Enchoro Wildlife Camp or similar.

Day 3: Masai Mara – Nairobi

Start your day with an optional visit to a Maasai village to learn about their way of life, dances and culture. Return to your accommodation for a quick breakfast, check out and depart for Nairobi, with lunch en route.

WHAT'S INCLUDED

- ✓ Transport in a 4x4 Land Cruiser
- ✓ Accommodation
- ✓ Park entry fees
- ✓ Professional driver/guide
- ✓ All meals
- ✓ Bottled drinking water
- ✓ Transfers

WHAT'S NOT INCLUDED

Three-Day Amboseli National Park Safari

Amboseli National Park is located in southern Kenya, close to the Kenya-Tanzania border, and is one of the best places in Africa to see free-ranging elephants. The park is also known for its spectacular views of Mount Kilimanjaro, the highest free-standing mountain in the world, as well as opportunities to learn about Maasai culture.

Amboseli is famous for its wide-open landscapes, big skies, swampy springs and dry plains, all set against the backdrop of Mount Kilimanjaro. Underground water from Kilimanjaro feeds clear springs in the heart of the park, attracting large numbers of animals throughout the year.

Itinerary

Day 1: Nairobi – Amboseli

Depart Nairobi in the morning and travel to Amboseli National Park, located at the foot of snow-capped Mount Kilimanjaro, Africa's highest peak. Arrive in time for lunch, followed by an afternoon game drive. Dinner and overnight at Nyati Safari Camp or similar accommodation.

Day 2: Full Day in Amboseli

After breakfast, enjoy a morning game drive with Mount Kilimanjaro as a stunning backdrop. Look out for elephants, the Big Five and abundant birdlife across the park's open plains. After lunch, take an afternoon game drive with the option to visit a Maasai boma at an additional cost, or relax at the camp.

Dinner and overnight at Nyati Safari Camp on a full-board basis.

Day 3: Amboseli – Nairobi

After breakfast, leave the lodge for a final game drive from 6:30 am to 9:00 am. Depart Amboseli National Park for Nairobi, with a picnic lunch served en route. Arrive in Nairobi in the early afternoon.
